Please post for your residents:

Multifamily Housing Partners,

The Office of Multifamily Housing Programs has been working with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to ensure that all Multifamily assisted residents have access to FCC's Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) to help them afford broadband for work, school, health care, and more. All Multifamily assisted residents are eligible for the ACP and thanks to HUD's partnership with FCC, they can now more easily verify their eligibility and apply for affordable broadband through a simple two-step process.

To enroll, residents need to:

- Go to GetInternet.gov (AccedealInternet.gov en español) to submit an application or print out a mail-in application; and
- Contact their preferred participating provider to select a plan and have the discount applied to their bill.

We encourage you to share this information with your residents and provide enrollment assistance when needed. If you have any questions, please contact please contact ACPSupport@usac.org or call 1 (877) 384-2575 between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. ET, seven days a week.
